Two Pictures .- A young Breckinkings Democrat of this city, for whom we have the highest respect, tells us that we did n't draw it sufficiently mild in the account we gave the other day of the Democratic Convention at Clarksville. He learns from an old member of his party who went down to the meeting, that the train from this city was crowded trying physicians and the most popular medicines of after it passed Springfield; that the procession at Clarksville was a large one; that the Court House was n't large enough by a good deal to hold the crowd; and that the "enthusiasm" was "never seen the like of"-in fact, "naterly tremenjus."

All this may be so. It may be very much so. We would n't be surprised if it is-yes we would too; but we won't say it is not. Our report of the affair was founded upon information received from gentlemen who We would particularly call the attention of our were in Clarksville at the time; who had an unobstructed view of the procession; who saw the rooster-emblazoned banner which was borne in its midst; who heard "with its. (For the Nashvile Patriot ) Respectfully Dedicated to the Third Ward Bell and Everett Club.

BY A MERRIER. Come gather around the Union, Let every heart be open there. To the bold cause we cherish, And love to honor everywhere.

Plant our banner on the soil, Once crimsoned by the fiery gore Of patriots, that fought and died, Those brave and noble sons of yore.

Let her float o'er land and sea. Till every heart shall be made glad By this our Union Jubilee. We'll stand by her stars and stripes,

Yea, unfurl her to the breeze.

And we will battle in her wars, Ever living for her rights, Dying defending our country's cause. Our own noble Washington.

Put to rout a British fee; For union of these colours, And bade us to preserve them so.

Gallant Bell of Tennessee Now holds them unfurled in his hand, Staying the foe-Disunion-And he will drive it from our land.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE PATRIOT: Seeing so many certificates in your paper of cures made by the Indian Doctor, I deem it my duty to make known to the public the benefit my wife has received from the use of his medicine. She has been afflicted with Dropsy for about four years; her body and limbs badly swollen. We tried all remedies we could get hold of. She was treated by five of the most eminent physicians in the country, but nothing scemed to relieve her until she began to take the Indian Doctor's remedies which relieved her immediately. I think his remedies for Dropsy are the best in the world, and should advise all thus afflicted to apply to him.

Nashville, June 19, 1860. NASHVILLE, June 14th, 1860. TO THE EDITORS OF THE PATRIOT: I wish to make a statement through columns of what the Indian Doctor's Pills of arms. and Blood Purifier have done for me. I have taken about a quart of blue mass and all other medicines I could get hold of; none seemed to give me relief. I was troubled with Dys-pepsia until I applied to the Indian Doctor, who gave me his Pills and Blood Purifier which relieved me immediately. I am now in better health than I have been for many years, and I can recommend the Indian Doctor's remedies to be all he represents them to be, and should advise 'all afflicted to try his CAPT.
